Rules for Event Submission:

- * All events must be held at a public venue-private residences cannot be accepted
- * Fundraising events must state that they are fundraising events with the name of the beneficiary
- * All events must be open to the general public-private membership organizations not accepted
- * All events must take place within the area guidelines of the the Crivitz Wisconsin & The Near North Vacationland Visitor Guide
- * Events which would or can harm any sector, community, religious group, government or any individual directly or indirectly are not allowed. Events which are unethical in nature, controversial, disputed or restricted by any laws/government bodies are also not allowed to be listed.
Some examples of such events are rave parties, dope session, terrorism activities, protests against anybody/individual, strikes, inviting for public gatherings etc.

To Submit your event, please fill out this form in it's entirety and either email it to communityevents@vocwi.com, fax it to (715) 854-2748 or drop it off in the clerk's office at the Crivitz Village Hall during business hours.

The Crivitz Business Association has the final authority over any event postings to the Crivitz Community Events calendar.

Please feel free to contact Barb Uhl at (715) 854-2030 if you have any questions regarding this form.
